

Fireside Books

With a collection featuring more than 40 years in business, Fireside Books specialize in collectibles, rare books as well as your favorite current authors. Browse through thousands of books including rare authors such as Mary Johnston and Ellen Glasgow. Drop by and spend hours browsing our extensive inventory. You will literally find thousands upon thousands of books, magazines and prints to explore.

Fireside Books also offers a mix of antiques including quilts, crocks and smalls to complement our inventory of books.

Give us a call to confirm hours, and, to see if we have what you are looking for.

19721 Main Street

(540) 254-3200